

Maari Ma Health
Aboriginal Corporation

Position Vacant

Child and Family Health Nurse Vacancy

About Maari Ma Health

Maari Ma Health is an Aboriginal community-controlled regional health service that has been providing a quality service to the Aboriginal people of far western New South Wales for more than 20 years and employs over 140 people within the region.

About the role

Maari Ma Health operates a GP clinically lead, practice organised, multidisciplinary team based, culturally secure model of care. It has developed a strong Healthy Start program in response to its whole of life course Chronic Disease Strategy. Its child and family workforce includes dedicated GPs, Aboriginal Health Practitioners and specialist midwives and child and family health nurses, plus a community paediatrician one week per month.

This position will work as part of a well-resourced Healthy Start team providing quality child and family health services to families caring for children 0-5 years of age. The Child and Family Health Nurse will use a strength-based and wellness focus, building on parental confidence and skills through the provision of information, education, resources, guidance, and role modelling safe responsive care.

This position will provide services to Broken Hill and the remote community of Wilcannia.

Attractive salary package

- Annual salary up to CNS 2 - up to $1087000 gross per annum plus superannuation. depending on qualifications and years of experience

A great range of benefits including:

- Working Monday to Friday, 8.30 – 5.00.
- Generous salary packaging, (which can increase your take home pay by several thousand dollars)
- 5 weeks annual leave plus additional paid leave over Christmas period
- Accrued Days Off (up to 12 per year)
- Excellent personal development opportunities
- Relocation assistance
- Accommodation provided for initial 4 weeks
- Access to use our accredited health care service for you and your family (conditions apply).

The Location:

The Broken Hill region is rich with Aboriginal culture and is full of spirit, history, diversity and character to explore and uncover – an iconic destination for every Australian to visit.

The Barkindji people have called the Maari Ma region home for over 50,000 years and are passionate about sharing their cultural values, history, and sacred places.

The Oasis of the Outback, Broken Hill is a living, breathing time capsule where the Aboriginal history and great mining prosperity of yesteryear blends seamlessly with a rising modern art scene, all set amid a sprawling desert landscape. It is a place of huge skies, rocky red earth, and a fascinating and internationally significant history. This historic town is great for all ages and has several day-cares, primary schools, high schools, and TAFE.

Beyond Broken Hill and on your doorstep, you can immerse yourself in the natural landscape via spectacular national parks with rich First Nations and colonial & pastoral history, lush rivers and lakes, abundant wildlife, and other classic towns of outback New South Wales and beyond.

So, if you are looking for an immersion into Aboriginal health and are wanting to join an award-winning practice, please contact Claire Allan on 0447 807 183 or email: claire.allan@maarima.com.au

Please view our website and see the Strategic Plan, Chronic Disease Strategy and Annual Report at www.maarima.com.au

APPLY ONLINE - please go to the "Working with us" page of our website.
www.maarima.com.au/employment